

Dear Parent/Guardian

We are now moving into the last week of half term and we are still awaiting announcements of assessment arrangements and any return to site plans. When details arrive we will share these with you. Until that point we will continue with our arrangements for teaching at a distance.

Welsh Music Day / Diwrnod Miwsig Cymru

Today is Welsh Music day and it will take over AM's home page! The day celebrates all forms of Welsh music, from indie, rock, punk, funk, folk, electronica to hip hop, and everything in between. With the world battling the coronavirus pandemic, and music fans unable to attend live performances, Welsh Language Music Day celebrations are moving online with gigs, videos and tracks being launched on AM. There will also be an opportunity to visit Welsh label shops on AM - buy the latest vinyls, T-shirts, tapes, CDs from some of Wales' most exciting artists. There will also be an opportunity to discover and re-visit some of the musical videos published by the labels over the last few years.

Here is an easy way to join in the fun of Welsh Language Music Day, below are 5 links at content that will be made live at 9am, Friday 5 February, especially for schools.
